

Psalms 11:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Analysis

This verse describes God's judgment using the imagery of Sodom and Gomorrah—fire, brimstone, and scorching wind. The 'cup' metaphor appears throughout Scripture as God's wrath (Jeremiah 25:15, Revelation 14:10). Reformed theology sees this as God's active judgment, not mere natural consequences. The 'portion of their cup' indicates appointed, measured judgment—God's justice is exact, not capricious.

Historical Context

Written with reference to the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah (Genesis 19), which became Israel's paradigmatic example of divine judgment against wickedness.
