

Psalms 116:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people,

Analysis

I will pay my vows unto the LORD (נָדַרְתִּי לַיהוָה אֲשַׁלֵּם, nedarai la-YHWH ashallem)—Neder means vow, promise; shalam means pay, fulfill, complete. Now in the presence of all his people (נִגְדַחְנָא לְכֹל־עַמּוֹ, negdah-na le-khol-ammo)—Neged means before, in front of, in the presence of.

Psalm 116 is a thanksgiving psalm for deliverance from death (vv. 3-8). David vowed something during distress and now publicly fulfills it. Vow-paying was done at the temple with sacrifices (Leviticus 7:16, 22:21). The public nature matters—testimony strengthens community faith. Ecclesiastes 5:4-5 warns against making vows carelessly: "When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it... Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay."

Historical Context

Israelite vows typically involved sacrifices or service pledges made during crises. Hannah vowed her son to temple service (1 Samuel 1:11). Jacob vowed tithes at Bethel (Genesis 28:20-22). The temple courts hosted vow-fulfillment ceremonies where individuals testified to God's deliverance while offering sacrifices.
