

Psalms 119:150

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.

Analysis

They draw nigh that follow after mischief (קָרְבוּ רֹדְפֵי זִמְמָה, garevu rodefe zimmah)—Pursuers of wickedness (zimmah, lewdness, evil schemes) are approaching. They are far from thy law (מִתּוֹרַתְךָ רָחָקוּ, mi-toratka rachaqu)—The contrast is spatial and moral: proximity to evil corresponds with distance from Torah. Those near wickedness are far from God's instruction.

This verse describes the wicked's trajectory. Psalm 1:1 warns against walking in the counsel of the ungodly—the progressive movement toward sin and away from God. Romans 1:28 speaks of those who "did not like to retain God in their knowledge," resulting in a "reprobate mind." Distance from God's law is not neutral ground—it is the path toward destruction. Conversely, drawing near to God means drawing near to His Word (James 4:8).

Historical Context

In Israel's history, periods of apostasy were marked by the rise of those who 'followed after mischief'—Baal worship, child sacrifice, injustice. The prophets confronted this pattern repeatedly (Jeremiah 2:5, 7:24).
