

Psalms 119:158

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; because they kept not thy word.

Analysis

I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved (בָּאִיתִי בְּגָדִים יָאַתְקֹוּטָה, ra'iti bogdim va'etqotatah)—Bogdim are 'traitors, treacherous ones,' from bagad (betray covenant). Qut means 'feel disgust, loathe, be grieved.' The psalmist's response isn't self-righteousness but holy grief at covenant-breaking: because they kept not thy word (אֲשֶׁר אִמְרָתֶךָ לֹא שָׁמַרְוּ, asher imratekha lo shamaru). Shamar (keep, guard, observe) is precisely what bogdim refuse.

Paul echoes this in Philippians 3:18: 'Many walk...enemies of the cross of Christ...I tell you even weeping.' Grief over others' sin marks spiritual maturity, not judgmentalism.

Historical Context

The term bogdim often denotes apostate Israelites rather than pagan outsiders (Jeremiah 3:8; Malachi 2:10-16). The psalmist grieves over covenant members who abandon God's Word—a recurring tragedy from the golden calf to Judas. His holy sorrow mirrors God's own grief over faithless Israel (Hosea 11:8).
