

Psalms 119:86

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

All thy commandments are faithful: they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.

Analysis

All thy commandments are faithful—(כל-מצוּתִיךְ אֲמֹתָה)—every single mitzvah (commandment) possesses emunah (faithfulness/reliability). God's commands aren't arbitrary impositions but reliable guides proven trustworthy through testing. They persecute me wrongfully; help thou me—(שְׁקֵר רְדָפָנִי עַזְנָנִי) sheker (falsehood/wrongfully) modifies redaphuni (they persecute me); the opposition is unjust. Ozreni (help me) pleads for divine intervention.

Jesus experienced this: persecuted wrongfully (John 15:25), yet the Father's commandments remained utterly faithful. Peter echoes: 'If ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye' (1 Peter 3:14). Unjust persecution validates rather than invalidates God's Word—the faithful commands attract opposition from those who oppose faithfulness.

Historical Context

Throughout redemptive history, God's faithful servants faced wrongful persecution: Joseph, David, the prophets, Jesus, the apostles. The Hebrew concept of emunah (faithfulness) encompasses reliability, steadfastness, and truth. God's commandments share His character—they can be trusted even when obedience brings suffering.
