

Psalms 119:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

Analysis

This verse asks the crucial question: "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way?" The Hebrew bameh (how/by what means) seeks the method for moral purity. Naar (young man) emphasizes the vulnerability of youth to sin and folly. "Cleanse his way" uses zakah orcho—to purify, make clear, keep pure one's path. The answer: "by taking heed thereto according to thy word." Lishmor (taking heed) means to guard, observe, give attention—active vigilance. God's Word functions as both standard (revealing what is clean) and means (empowering cleansing). This anticipates Ephesians 5:26 (Christ cleanses the church "with the washing of water by the word"). Scripture sanctifies by revealing sin, pointing to Christ, and guiding righteous living.

Historical Context

In ancient Israel, young men faced particular temptations and responsibilities—military service, marriage preparation, establishing households. Without God's Word as guide, they easily fell into the cultural patterns of surrounding nations. The Wisdom literature (Proverbs, Ecclesiastes) specifically addresses young men, warning against sexual immorality, laziness, and bad company. This verse echoes Proverbs 4:20-27, which calls young men to guard their hearts and keep their paths straight.
