

Psalms 136:25

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Analysis

Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever....—Gives food to all flesh - universal providence. For his mercy endureth for ever (כִּי לְעוֹלָם חֶסֶד, ki le-olam chasdo). This refrain, repeated 26 times, transforms history into worship. Each event becomes evidence of God's eternal chesed (steadfast covenant love). The psalm teaches that recounting salvation history should evoke gratitude, showing God's character remains unchanging.

Historical Context

Psalm 136, the Great Hallel, recounts salvation from creation through providence. Sung at Passover and festivals with antiphonal structure (cantor and congregation), it trained Israel to see history through the lens of God's enduring mercy. Every generation learned their identity through this recitation.
