

Psalm 139:20

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

Analysis

For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain. This verse explains why David prays for judgment: the wicked don't just harm people but blaspheme God. Speak against thee wickedly (לִמְצַמֵּה, limzimmah) carries the idea of plotting, scheming with malicious intent—not casual irreverence but calculated rebellion. Thine enemies (עֲרָכָה, arecha) are God's adversaries, not merely David's.

Take thy name in vain (לְשֹׁאַל נָשָׁא, nas'u lashav) violates the third commandment (Exodus 20:7)—using God's name for empty, deceptive purposes or treating it with contempt. The wicked invoke God's name to legitimize their evil schemes. For David, God's honor is at stake; this isn't about personal offense but defending divine glory. Those intimate with God (vv. 1-18) cannot be neutral when His name is profaned.

Historical Context

Throughout Israel's history, false prophets and wicked leaders used God's name to authorize injustice (Jeremiah 23:16-17, Ezekiel 13:6-7). In David's time, rival claimants to the throne may have invoked YHWH's name falsely. Jesus faced similar blasphemy from religious leaders who claimed God's authority while rejecting God's Son.

Study Questions

1. In what subtle ways might you be 'taking God's name in vain' by claiming His authority for your own agenda?
2. How does deep intimacy with God (vv. 1-18) create intolerance for seeing His name profaned by others?
3. What is your responsibility when you witness God's name or character being misrepresented?
