

Psalms 16:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

Analysis

The 'lines' (Hebrew 'chebel'—measuring lines) have fallen in pleasant places, giving David a delightful inheritance. This alludes to land distribution in Canaan but points beyond to spiritual inheritance. The Hebrew 'nachalah' (inheritance) anticipates the New Testament teaching that believers inherit eternal life and all things in Christ (Romans 8:17, 1 Peter 1:4). Reformed theology emphasizes that our true inheritance is God Himself.

Historical Context

References the tribal land allotments in Joshua where each family received inheritance by lot (casting lots), trusting God's sovereignty in the distribution.

Related Passages

---

Psalms 19:1 — Heavens declare God's glory

Colossians 1:16 — All things created through Christ

Study Questions

1. Do you recognize your spiritual inheritance in Christ as supremely valuable?
2. How does viewing life as a 'pleasant inheritance' from God transform daily perspective?
