

Psalms 18:19

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

Analysis

God brought David out 'into a broad place' and delivered him because He delighted in him. The Hebrew 'merchab' (broad/spacious place) contrasts with being trapped or confined. Freedom replaces constraint. God's 'chaphets' (delight/pleasure) in David grounds the deliverance in divine love, not human merit. This anticipates believers' acceptance in Christ—God delights in us because of Jesus (Ephesians 1:6).

Historical Context

Written after experiencing various confinements—trapped by Saul in wilderness, surrounded by enemies—now free to reign as king in God's blessing.
