

Psalm 18:28

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

Analysis

---

Yahweh lights David's lamp and illuminates his darkness. The Hebrew 'nir' (lamp) symbolizes life and guidance, while 'choshek' (darkness) represents danger and ignorance. This anticipates Jesus as light of the world (John 8:12) and believers as lights (Matthew 5:14). Reformed theology sees illumination as both intellectual (understanding truth) and spiritual (regeneration). God must give light; we cannot generate it.

Historical Context

Lamps were essential in ancient homes for nighttime safety and activity. Spiritual darkness was equally dangerous, requiring divine illumination.
