

Psalm 18:33

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

Analysis

God made David's feet like deer's feet and set him secure on heights. The Hebrew 'ayal' (deer/doe) suggests sure-footedness in dangerous terrain. Heights ('bamah') can mean both physical mountains and metaphorical exaltation. This imagery appears in Habakkuk 3:19 describing confidence in God. Reformed theology sees this as divine providence preparing believers for their calling through trials.

Historical Context

David's wilderness years fleeing Saul trained him in mountain warfare and navigation of treacherous terrain—skills essential for later military campaigns.
