

Psalm 18:34

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

Analysis

God trained David's hands for war and arms to bend a bronze bow. The Hebrew 'lamad' (trained/taught) indicates divine instruction in military skills. Bending a bronze bow required extraordinary strength. This illustrates God's comprehensive providence—even practical skills come from Him. It anticipates Paul's teaching that diverse abilities come from the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:4-6). All legitimate skills glorify God when used for His purposes.

Historical Context

Ancient warfare required extensive training. Bronze bows (or bronze-reinforced) demanded great strength. David's prowess came through divine enablement, not mere natural talent.
