

Psalm 18:38

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

Analysis

David struck down enemies so they could not rise, falling under his feet. The Hebrew 'machats' (struck/shattered) indicates devastating defeat. Enemies under feet imagery appears throughout Scripture symbolizing complete subjugation (Joshua 10:24, Psalm 110:1). This anticipates Christ's enemies made His footstool (Hebrews 10:13) and believers reigning with Him (Revelation 5:10). God grants His people triumph over opposition.

Historical Context

Victory language common in ancient Near Eastern royal inscriptions, here applied to David's God-given military success establishing a secure kingdom.
