

Psalms 18:39

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

Analysis

God equipped ('azar'—girded) David with strength for battle, subduing adversaries beneath him. The repetition of divine enablement emphasizes that victory comes from God, not human might. The subduing ('kara') under him continues the footstool imagery. This parallels Ephesians 6:10's command to be strong in the Lord's strength, not our own. Reformed theology attributes all success to sovereign grace.

Historical Context

David's military success came not from superior numbers or weaponry but from divine empowerment, as seen in victories against overwhelming odds (1 Samuel 17).

1. In what battles do you try to rely on your own strength rather than God's?
2. How do you actively seek divine enablement for spiritual warfare?
