

Psalms 21:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

Analysis

---

God's sovereign power to find and judge all enemies demonstrates His omniscience and omnipotence. The parallel structure ('hand'/'right hand') emphasizes completeness—no enemy escapes God's notice or power. Reformed theology sees this as an expression of God's justice: His wrath against sin is certain and exhaustive. This also points to Christ's future judgment when every knee shall bow (Phil. 2:10-11).

Historical Context

Kings relied on intelligence networks to identify enemies. This verse asserts that God needs no spies—His knowledge is perfect and His justice inescapable. For David, this was reassurance against conspirators and foreign threats.
