

Psalms 22:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

Analysis

The mockers' taunt—quoted verbatim by those at the cross (Matt. 27:43)—strikes at the heart of faith: 'let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.' Reformed theology sees profound irony here: God did delight in His Son (Matt. 3:17), but precisely because of that delight, He did not deliver Him from the cross. Christ's abandonment was necessary for our salvation. God's silence during Christ's suffering was the loudest declaration of His love for sinners.

Historical Context

This exact taunt at Calvary demonstrates the psalm's prophetic nature. The religious leaders unknowingly quoted Scripture while rejecting its fulfillment. Their mockery became proof of Messianic prophecy.

Study Questions

1. How does understanding that God 'did not spare His own Son' (Rom. 8:32) transform your view of divine love?

2. What does Christ's abandonment teach about the cost of God's delight in you?
