

Psalms 24:10

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

Analysis

The question repeats—'Who is this King of glory?'—intensifying anticipation. The answer: 'The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.' 'LORD of hosts' (Yahweh Sabaoth) emphasizes God's command over heavenly armies. Reformed theology sees divine sovereignty: God commands all powers—angelic, earthly, cosmic—and His glory fills all creation. The 'Selah' calls for contemplative pause, inviting meditation on this majestic truth.

Historical Context

The title 'LORD of hosts' originated in Israel's holy war tradition, emphasizing that earthly armies succeeded only as God commanded heavenly forces. This title assured Israel that visible military strength mattered less than invisible divine power.
