

Psalm 24:4

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

Analysis

The answer requires moral purity: 'clean hands and a pure heart.' Hands represent deeds (external righteousness), heart represents motives (internal righteousness). 'Not lifted up his soul unto vanity' means rejecting idolatry and false worship. 'Nor sworn deceitfully' requires truthfulness. From a Reformed perspective, these requirements are impossible for fallen humanity (Rom. 3:23), pointing to our need for Christ's imputed righteousness. Only through union with Christ do believers meet these standards—His purity covers us.

Historical Context

These qualifications echoed Torah requirements for priests and worshipers. They established an ethical standard that constantly drove Israel back to sacrifice and atonement, anticipating Christ's perfect fulfillment of all righteousness.
