

Psalms 24:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

Analysis

The qualified worshiper (v.4) 'shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.' Blessing and righteousness are received, not earned—pure grace. The phrase 'God of his salvation' (Elohei yisho) emphasizes personal relationship with the saving God. Reformed theology sees imputation here: God credits righteousness to those who meet the standard through faith in Christ. We receive what Christ earned, demonstrating sola gratia—salvation by grace alone.

Historical Context

Temple worshipers sought God's blessing through sacrifice and obedience. This verse promised that qualifying worshipers would receive divine favor—both material (covenant blessings) and spiritual (righteousness). Christ perfectly fulfilled the qualifications, earning blessings He shares with believers.
