

Psalms 28:5

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

Analysis

The indictment 'Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands' explains why judgment is appropriate. Willful ignorance of God's revelation (both creation and providence) warrants condemnation. The consequence: 'he shall destroy them, and not build them up.' Reformed theology sees judicial hardening—those who refuse divine revelation are given over to blindness (Rom. 1:18-32). God's works and operations reveal His character; ignoring them merits judgment.

Historical Context

Israel's prophets condemned nations and individuals who disregarded God's mighty acts in history. Refusing to acknowledge divine providence hardened hearts toward further rebellion. This willful blindness brought covenant curse.

Study Questions

1. How do people today 'regard not the works of the LORD' despite clear evidence?
2. What does God's dual capacity to 'destroy' or 'build up' teach about human responsibility?
