

Psalm 35:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.

Analysis

The cry 'how long' echoes throughout Psalms, expressing the tension between faith and felt abandonment. 'My darling' (Hebrew 'yachid,' only one, unique) likely refers to his life or soul, something precious and singular. Protection from 'lions' metaphorically represents powerful, violent enemies. This petition acknowledges God's sovereignty over timing while urgently requesting relief, modeling prayer that's both submissive and honest.

Historical Context

David's background as shepherd facing literal lions (1 Samuel 17:34-37) lends authenticity to this metaphor. His early experiences prepared him to trust God against human 'lions' seeking to devour him.
