

Psalm 41:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.

Analysis

God upholds David 'in mine integrity' and sets him 'before thy face for ever.' The Hebrew tom (integrity) suggests completeness, wholeness, innocence--not sinless perfection but genuine, undivided loyalty to God. Being set 'before God's face' implies ongoing access to divine presence, the greatest blessing imaginable.

Historical Context

David's integrity was challenged by enemies but vindicated by God. This verse anticipates the greater Son of David who perfectly embodied integrity and now stands before God's face interceding for His people.
