

Psalms 44:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

Analysis

The confident declaration 'In God we boast all the day long' makes God the constant subject of praise and the sole ground of confidence. 'Praise thy name for ever' commits to eternal acknowledgment of God's character. The term 'boast' (halal) suggests loud, public proclamation--not private gratitude but corporate witness.

Historical Context

This verse forms part of Israel's public worship, likely sung in temple liturgy. The 'Selah' marking indicates a musical pause or interlude, allowing the congregation to reflect on the declaration of trust.

Study Questions

1. What does it mean to 'boast in God' rather than in our accomplishments?
2. How does public praise differ from private gratitude in its effect on faith and community?
