

Psalms 45:13

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

Analysis

The king's daughter is 'all glorious within,' her clothing 'of wrought gold.' Internal glory precedes external adornment. The 'wrought gold' clothing represents costly beauty, but the emphasis on being 'glorious within' suggests moral and spiritual beauty as the foundation.

Historical Context

Royal women in ancient courts wore elaborate, expensive garments. But this verse's emphasis on inner glory reflects Hebrew values that prioritized character over appearance (cf. Proverbs 31:30).

Study Questions

1. Why does the verse emphasize that the bride is glorious 'within' before describing her clothing?
2. How does the church become 'glorious within' before adorned externally?
