

Psalms 45:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations:
therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

Analysis

The psalmist promises to 'make thy name to be remembered in all generations.' The result: 'the people shall praise thee for ever and ever.' The king's fame will not fade but endure eternally through praise. This eternal remembrance finds fulfillment only in Christ, whose name is above every name.

Historical Context

Perpetuating the king's name through song and story was a court duty. Royal psalms were preserved and sung, eventually being applied to the hoped-for Messiah who would fulfill all their promises.

Study Questions

1. How does the church continue to 'make Christ's name remembered' in all generations?
2. What is the relationship between remembering the king and praising him eternally?
