

Psalm 45:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

Analysis

The queen stands 'at thy right hand in gold of Ophir.' The position at the right hand indicates honor and shared authority. Ophir gold was the finest known, suggesting the queen's preciousness. Allegorically, the church as Christ's bride stands honored at His side, adorned with His righteousness.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern queens often wielded significant influence. The queen mother (gebirah) held special status in Judah's court. This verse may describe either the bride or the queen mother at the royal wedding.
