

Psalms 48:12

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

Analysis

---

The invitation to 'walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof' engages believers in surveying God's gifts. Counting towers, marking bulwarks, considering palaces--this detailed examination deepens appreciation. What we observe carefully, we value more fully.

Historical Context

---

Pilgrims to Jerusalem would walk the city's perimeter, observing its fortifications as evidence of God's protection. This physical survey reinforced theological truth: God defends His city.

Related Passages

---

1 Corinthians 13:4 — Characteristics of love

John 15:13 — Greatest form of love

Study Questions

---

1. What spiritual exercise does 'walking about' and counting God's gifts suggest?
2. How does careful observation of God's provision deepen gratitude?

Interlinear Text

---

ס' בו	צ' יון	וְהָקִיף וְהָ	ס' פָּר ו	מִגְדָּלֶיהָ:
Walk about	Zion	and go round about	her tell	the towers
H5437	H6726	H5362	H5608	H4026

---

From KJV Study • kjevstudy.org