

Psalms 48:14

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

Analysis

The conclusion: 'For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.' The demonstrative 'this God' points to all that has been described--defender, refuge, judge, eternal. The covenant formula 'our God' emphasizes relationship. He guides 'even unto death' and, by implication, beyond it.

Historical Context

The phrase 'our God forever and ever' employs covenant language emphasizing permanence of relationship. Guidance 'unto death' suggests God's faithfulness extends to life's end and transitions believers into His eternal presence.
