

Psalms 48:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

Analysis

Mount Zion is 'beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth.' The Hebrew yapheh (beautiful) suggests perfect proportion and attractiveness. 'Sides of the north' may reference ancient mythological language for the divine mountain, applied here to Jerusalem. Zion is 'the city of the great King'--God's royal residence.

Historical Context

Ancient Near Eastern mythology located the divine mountain in the north. By applying this language to Zion, Israel claimed that the true dwelling of the true God was Jerusalem, not mythological Zaphon.

Study Questions

---

1. How does Zion's beauty point to the greater beauty of God's presence?
2. In what sense is Jerusalem 'the joy of the whole earth'?
