

Psalms 48:8

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah.

Analysis

The correlation of hearing and seeing: 'As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts.' Tradition (what was heard from fathers) is confirmed by experience (what is seen). Faith transmitted through testimony becomes faith verified by experience. God establishes His city 'for ever.'

Historical Context

This verse emphasizes intergenerational faith: what parents taught about God's faithfulness, the present generation has now witnessed personally. This confirmation strengthens the ongoing transmission of faith.

Study Questions

1. What have you 'heard' about God that you have now 'seen' confirmed in experience?
2. How does the correspondence between tradition and experience strengthen faith?
