

Psalms 51:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Analysis

---

The prayer for Zion: 'Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.' David's sin affected the whole community; his restoration should bless all Jerusalem. The king's moral health impacts the nation's wellbeing. Restored David prays for restored Zion.

Historical Context

This verse may be later addition during exile, applying David's psalm to the nation's need for rebuilding. Or it may be David's original prayer that his sin not harm the city.
