

Psalms 51:9

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Analysis

The prayer for divine amnesia: 'Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.' David asks God to look away from his sins and to erase them from the record. 'Blot out' uses the imagery of wiping a slate clean or deleting a written record. Complete removal, not merely overlooking.

Historical Context

Ancient records were kept on clay tablets or papyrus; 'blotting out' meant erasing or destroying the record. David asks for his sins to be removed from God's book of remembrance.
