

Psalm 52:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

Analysis

The perverse values: 'Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness.' The comparison is not between evil and good alone but reveals active preference--'loving' evil, 'choosing' lies. This is not accidental sin but chosen orientation, character rather than incident.

Historical Context

Doeg's betrayal wasn't a momentary lapse but revealed his character. He actively chose to report information that would harm David and the priests, preferring Saul's favor over truth.
