

Psalms 55:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

Analysis

This imprecatory verse must be understood through Christ's teaching to pray for enemies (Matthew 5:44) while recognizing God's just wrath against unrepentant wickedness. David's prayer aligns with divine justice, not personal vengeance. 'Let death seize upon them' reflects Hebrew poetry's vivid language for God's righteous judgment, fulfilled in the fate of Absalom and Ahithophel.

Historical Context

The Hebrew 'Sheol' (the grave/realm of the dead) here represents divine judgment. Ahithophel's suicide and Absalom's death in battle fulfilled this prayer, demonstrating God's justice on those who oppose His anointed king.
