

Psalm 55:18

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.

Analysis

The Hebrew 'padah' (redeemed) is covenant language, used of Israel's exodus deliverance and anticipating Christ's redemption. God delivers 'in peace' even amid battle, revealing that true shalom is spiritual—right standing with God—not merely circumstances. 'Many were with me' may reference angelic armies (2 Kings 6:16-17) or God's providential orchestration of human allies.

Historical Context

David's deliverance often involved miraculous provision of loyal followers during Absalom's rebellion. The phrase recalls God's promise to fight for Israel and defeat enemies more numerous than His people (Deuteronomy 20:1-4).
