

Psalms 55:20

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

Analysis

The betrayer's covenant violation intensifies his guilt—'he hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him.' The Hebrew 'shalom' indicates covenantal wholeness. Profaning the covenant after enjoying its benefits demonstrates judicial hardening. This typologically anticipates Judas, who shared covenant meals with Christ yet violated sacred fellowship.

Historical Context

Covenant violation was considered the gravest sin in ancient Israel, warranting death (Leviticus 24:16). Ahithophel's betrayal after years of trusted counsel to David exemplified this treachery, warranting the judgment David pronounces.
