

Psalms 60:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

Analysis

The earthquake imagery ('made the earth to tremble... broken it') depicts national catastrophe. God's shaking of foundations reveals that earthly security is illusory. 'Heal the breaches' appeals for restoration, using language of wall repair, anticipating Nehemiah's work. This demonstrates that God both wounds and heals His people (Deuteronomy 32:39).

Historical Context

The metaphorical earthquake represents military defeat's devastating impact on national morale. Ancient warfare's total nature meant defeats affected entire populations, not merely armies.
