

Psalms 60:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide
Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

Analysis

The shift from lament to oracular confidence ('God hath spoken in his holiness') demonstrates answered prayer. God's speaking 'in his holiness' indicates revelation's certainty and purity. The promised division of Shechem and Succoth represents covenant inheritance being distributed, showing that God's promises transcend present defeat, grounding hope in divine decree.

Historical Context

Shechem and Succoth represent territories on both sides of the Jordan, symbolizing Israel's complete inheritance. God's promise to 'divide' and 'mete out' these territories affirmed David's kingship over all Israel despite current military setbacks.
