

Psalms 62:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.

Analysis

The threefold description of God as 'rock,' 'salvation,' and 'defence' (high tower) emphasizes security's divine source. 'I shall not be greatly moved' acknowledges possible shaking without ultimate overthrow. The qualification 'greatly' shows realism—trials may disturb but won't destroy, because foundation rests on God who cannot be shaken (Hebrews 12:28).

Historical Context

The 'rock' imagery pervades Davidic psalms, drawing on his experience in wilderness strongholds. These geological fortresses provided physical protection while symbolizing God's greater security.

Study Questions

1. What does it mean to be 'moved' but not 'greatly moved' in trials?
2. How do you distinguish between godly stability and stoic suppression of emotions?
