

Psalms 62:3

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

Analysis

The question to enemies 'How long will ye imagine mischief' indicates weariness with persistent opposition. The imagery of enemies as attackers assaulting a 'bowing wall' and 'tottering fence' suggests perceived vulnerability. Yet this may be ironic—they see David as weak, but he stands secure in God. Their destruction of one 'already slain' indicates futile assault on one whom God guards.

Historical Context

The metaphor of a leaning wall captures David's apparent political vulnerability during various persecutions. Enemies saw opportunity in his weakened state, not recognizing God's preservation.
