

Psalm 64:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

Analysis

The plea to 'hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked' reveals that conspiracies operate in darkness. The Hebrew 'sod' (secret counsel/assembly) indicates organized plotting. David's need for divine concealment demonstrates that human wisdom cannot detect or defend against hidden schemes—only God's omniscience and protection suffice.

Historical Context

David repeatedly faced conspiracies, from Saul's court plots to Absalom's rebellion. The 'insurrection' (Hebrew 'rigshah'—tumultuous assembly) likely refers to organized rebellion requiring God's supernatural protection to survive.
