

Psalms 64:6

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

Analysis

The 'search out iniquities' reveals meticulous plotting. 'They accomplish a diligent search' (literally 'searched search,' intensive Hebrew) shows thoroughness in devising wickedness. Yet 'the inward thought of every one... and the heart, is deep' indicates that plotters underestimate both their own depravity and God's deeper knowledge, demonstrating that sin's depths exceed human comprehension (Jeremiah 17:9).

Historical Context

The reference to deep inward thought and heart connects to wisdom literature's teaching about the heart's deceitfulness. Even the wicked cannot fully plumb their own capacity for evil, let alone escape God's deeper scrutiny.

Study Questions

1. What does the thoroughness of wicked plotting teach about taking spiritual warfare seriously?
2. How does the 'deep' heart require divine illumination to be truly known?
