

Psalms 68:17

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.

Analysis

The 'chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels'—divine military force vastly outnumbers earthly armies. 'The Lord is among them, as in Sinai' connects God's ongoing presence with the theophany where He gave the law. God's angelic hosts serve His purposes, protecting His people and executing judgment. This celestial army guarantees victory, as Elisha's servant witnessed (2 Kings 6:17). Christ commands these legions (Matthew 26:53).

Historical Context

Angels repeatedly intervened in Israel's history—destroying Sodom, smiting Assyria's army (2 Kings 19:35), and protecting God's people. This vast angelic host demonstrates God's unlimited resources for accomplishing His will.
