

Psalm 68:21

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

Analysis

God 'shall wound the head of his enemies' echoes Genesis 3:15's proto-gospel: the Seed would crush the serpent's head. The 'hairy scalp' of the impenitent suggests pride and unrepentant wickedness. God's judgment is certain for those who persist in rebellion. This ultimate head-wound finds fulfillment in Christ's decisive victory over Satan at Calvary—though Satan bruised Christ's heel, Christ crushed Satan's head fatally (Colossians 2:15).

Historical Context

Ancient warriors often wore long hair as a sign of strength and pride (like Absalom). God's striking the hairy scalp symbolizes humbling the proud and judging those who continue in sin without repentance.
