

Psalm 68:22

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea:

Analysis

God promises to 'bring again from Bashan' and 'from the depths of the sea,' meaning no distance or obstacle prevents Him from saving His people or judging enemies. Whether scattered in distant mountains or drowned in the sea, God's power reaches everywhere. This anticipates Christ's promise that nothing can separate believers from God's love (Romans 8:38-39) and His power to rescue from any peril.

Historical Context

Bashan represented distant territory beyond Israel's borders. The Red Sea demonstrated God's power over waters and death itself. Together, these images convey God's unlimited reach and saving power.

Study Questions

1. What seemingly impossible situation do you need to trust God can reach into and redeem?

2. How does God's power over every domain (land and sea) assure you of His total sovereignty?
3. In what ways has God 'brought you back' from distant or desperate circumstances?
