

Psalms 68:24

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.

Analysis

The procession of God into the sanctuary represents Israel bringing the ark to the temple or celebrating a festival. 'My God, my King' personalizes the relationship—not just national deity but personal Lord. The procession 'into the sanctuary' foreshadows Christ's ascension into heaven's true sanctuary (Hebrews 9:24) after accomplishing redemption. This victorious entrance celebrates completed work and established reign.

Historical Context

This likely commemorates David bringing the ark to Jerusalem (2 Samuel 6) or Solomon dedicating the temple (1 Kings 8). Such processions reenacted God's past victories and affirmed His ongoing presence.
