

Psalms 71:15

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof.

Analysis

The commitment to declare God's righteousness and salvation 'all the day' mirrors verse 8's 'all the day' praise. 'I know not the numbers thereof' acknowledges God's deeds are innumerable—impossible to fully catalog. This humility before divine abundance produces ongoing testimony. Believers never exhaust reasons to praise God; new mercies appear daily (Lamentations 3:22-23). Worship based on God's character and works remains perpetually fresh.

Historical Context

Israel's festivals rehearsed God's mighty acts—Exodus, conquest, provision. Yet even these comprehensive celebrations couldn't exhaust the full scope of divine faithfulness across generations.

Study Questions

1. How can you develop the habit of declaring God's righteousness throughout each day?
2. What does acknowledging you 'know not the numbers' of God's deeds teach about humility in worship?
3. How can regular reflection on God's past faithfulness fuel ongoing testimony and praise?
