

Psalms 71:2

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape:
incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

Analysis

The appeal 'Deliver me in thy righteousness' grounds rescue not in the psalmist's merit but God's character. God's righteousness includes His covenant faithfulness—He must save His people to remain true to His promises. 'Cause me to escape' acknowledges inability to self-rescue. 'Incline thine ear' asks for God's attentive hearing. 'Save me' is direct petition. Each phrase emphasizes dependence on divine initiative and character, not human worthiness or effort.

Historical Context

God's righteousness bound Him to His covenant with Israel. This gave the faithful basis for confident petition—not presuming on grace but trusting God's own character and promises.

Study Questions

1. How does understanding that God saves according to His righteousness, not your merit, provide assurance?

2. What does it mean to ask God to 'incline his ear' to you?
3. How can you cultivate humble dependence on God's character rather than confidence in your own righteousness?
