

Psalms 71:7

Authorized King James Version (KJV)

I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.

Analysis

Being 'a wonder unto many' means the psalmist's experience—preserved through extraordinary trials—astonishes observers. Yet 'thou art my strong refuge' explains the wonder: God's protecting power, not human resilience. Others marvel at survival; the believer knows the true source. This testimony glorifies God and encourages other believers. Paul similarly became a 'spectacle' whose sufferings magnified Christ's sustaining grace (1 Corinthians 4:9, 2 Corinthians 12:9).

Historical Context

David's rise from shepherd to king through supernatural preservation and victories made him legendary. Yet he consistently attributed success to God, not personal ability or fortune.
